URGES WAR ON AUSTRIA

American Chief Executive Makes Clear Attitude of United States in War, Warns Pacifists.

Immediate declaration of war against Austria-Hungary was recommended to Congress today by President Wilson in his annual message to Congress.

His same logic would lead also to a declaration of war against Turkey and Bulgaria, but they are the mere tools of Germany and do not yet stand in a direct path of our necessary action, he said.

The President said our present and immediate path to win the war, and nothing shall turn him aside from it until it is accomplished.

Peace, the President declared, could come only when the German people make it through rulers the world can trust; when they make reparation for the destruction their present rulers have wrought, and when Germany recedes from all the territory acquired by armed conquest.

A wild demonstration, which lasted about thirty seconds, greeted the President's recommendation that Austria-Hungary be declared in a state of war. Senators and representatives arose in their seats and applauded vigorously, while visiting members of the diplomatic corps smiled as they applauded.

DOES NOT TRUST KAISER.

Trotzky Says Fear of Proletariat Made Him Accept Armistice.

A dispatch from Petrograd says the German militarists are not listening out of humanitarian motives, or a feeling of sympathy toward Russia, to the proposal for an armistice, Leon Trotzky, the Bolsheviki Foreign Commissary, said in an address today to the soldiers' and workmens' delegates. Only fear of the German proletariat, inspired by the example of the Russian revolutionists, prompted them to accept the overtures of Ensign Krylenko, the Bolsheviki commander-in-chief, he asserted.

"If the German Emperor and his generals, their breasts covered with ribbons for the slaughter they have committed, had their way," Trotzky declared, "the Russian revolution would have died, applauded by the Bourgeoise and by our present allies. The German Emperor and his generals entered into negotiations with Krylanko because the Russian revolutionists said to the nations of the world: 'For forty months you have been ruining the lives of hundreds of millions. Hunger is spreading wider and wider.'

"The Russian revolution has pointed away out and this makes us forget the want of military success. The Emperor has spoken to us as equal to equal because he knows a revolution of the German proletariat, a rebellion of soldiers and peasants, would be the answer if he gave any other reply."

M. Trotzky declared the diplomatists of the world were destined to see the greatness of the power of the Bolsheviki, which had been recognized by all peoples, adding: "If the diplomatists persist in their refusal to recognize it they will be swept away."

An Inviting Dish.

C. H. Zimmerman, of No. 115 north Royal street, one of Alexandria's best caterers, remembered the employees of the Gazette office again today. About the time they were preparing for the noon day lunch one of his attaches entered bearing a huge dish of oysters fried, as he can, in the genuine old Alexandria style. The bivalves were accompanied by all the trimmings. The welcome repast sent our recollection back to the days of the late Louisa Herbner, who died twenty years ago. She was for a long time associated with Mr. Zimmerman in conducting a hostelry, and enjoyed a reputation for preparing fried oysters as well as other choice dishes as did "Dolly of the chop house" in London. Her formula did not die with her.

Mr. Zimmerman was the caterer of the banquet given by the Maccabees of this city last night.

The Alexandria county draft board began active work today at the city hall preparing for the second draft call. In compliance with President Wilson's proclamation, the members of the local draft board are anxious that all who will do so volunteer their services in assisting the board in the work before them in helping to classify the lists of names of those eligible for service who are not already in. Young ladies or gentlemen who may have time at their disposal can render much needed assistance if they will do so and they are asked to volunteer in helping with the work. Wm. P. Woolls was today made chief clerk to the board and entered upon his duties.

The "Questionnaire" containing some 16 pages, is the name of a pamphlet which will be sent to all in Alexandria county who are eligible for service. Five per cent will be mailed each day beginning December 15th, until the required number of persons have been reached, about 2,000 or more.

TRUCE MADE EFFECTIVE.

Argentina Minister at Petrograd Sends Report—Bulgaria for Armistice.

Buenos Aires, Dec. 4.—Armistice has been effective on the Eastern front since Sunday, according to cabled advices received by the Argentine minister at Petrograd.

London, Dec. 4.—Bulgaria has formall yagreed to discuss armistice and peace with Russia. Negotiations will be opened "in accord with Bulgaria's allies," Premier Radoslavoff announced in the Sobranje, or Bulgarian Parliament.

No word had come through up to late last night from Constantinople as to Turkey's attitude toward pourparlers. Turkish participation is a vital part of the Teutonic program.

One dispatch says a truce has been agreed upon "in" many sectors, from the Pripet marshes to a point out of the Lipa—some 175 miles.

One of the Russian plenipotentiaries now parleying with the German high command was arrested as a suspected German spy under the Czar's regime two weeks before the March revolution that overthrew the monarchy. He is Vladimir Schneur.

Gen. Kaledines; hetman of the Cossacks, was reported to be marching on Moscow at the head of 100,000 Cossacks.

LYNCHBURG HAS A GHOST.

Negroes Terrified Because of Big Black Man With Armored Head.

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 4.—A ghost has been terrifying the colored people of Lynchburg and the efforts of white residents and police to reassure them have been in vain. The ghost is described as a great tall broad black man with an immense tail and an armored head, and the negroes believe so firmly in its existence that they are staying indoors at nights. Indeed, the thing has gotten to the point where housewives are suffering because negro women in service in many houses insist on going to their homes before nightfall.

The ghost is alleged to have gone into one negro home without the necessity of opening a locked door. The family fled from the supper table and when the ghost had disposed of the meal it, too, disappeared. Another time, according to popular belief among the blacks, the ghost was apprehended by the police and placed in the patrol wagon under lock and key. But when the police opened the van to remove the ghost it had gone. Another negro shot at the ghost, and although he saw the bullet go through its body, it did not prevent the ghost from disappearing.

The annual football supper of the Girl's Athletic Association of the Alexandria High School, given in honor of the football team, was held Saturday evening in Lee Camp hall. The decorations were artistic. "A. H. S." pennants were suspended from the chandeliers over the table from the points of which was hung the "pigskin. Maroon colored "A. H. C." monograms were also used in adorning the table. Much credit is due the president, Miss Sarah Kemper for the successful manner in which the affair was conducted. Members of the faculty, including Captain Sweeney, Miss Dickert, and Mrs. Bandy, were present, and each responded with an excellent speech, especially Capt. Sweeney who assured the boys that the school board was doing its utmost to put the field in good condition. Capt. Dreifus made an excellent toastmaster and deeply regretted that it was not possible for him to be with them next year. Willie Remington was elected captain.

Dr. M. D. Delaney, of the surgical staff of the Alexandria hospital, is receiving deserved credit for a highly successful operation in what is known as skin transplanting and plastic surgery, which was recently performed by him on Mr. E. C. Gillum, a brakeman on the Southern railway. Mr. Gillum sustained serious injuries in an accident on the railroad when his train collided with another near Shipman, Va., on October 3d, at which time his forearm was badly burned and he barely escaped death in an overturned freight caboose. Dr. Delaney found it necessary to transplant skin to replace that burned from the arm and did so by raising a portion, or "flap," from Gillum's chest. The denuded stump was fastened beneath the flap and held in position by sutures and adhesive bandages until the wound had been properly healed over and the object accomplished. It is said that Mr. Gillum will have the entire use of his arm and that the operation is the only one of its kind ever performed in Alexandria.

The regular monthly meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., will be held in the Confederate Veteran's building tomorrow, (Wednesday morning), at half-past ten o'clock. A full attendance is urged as much business of importance is to be considered.

First Lieutenant Gerald Jones, who has been at the officers' training camp at Leon Springs, Texas, is visiting his parents, Doctor and Mrs. Jones. He will remain here a few days before reporting to Pike Camp, Arkansas, for active duty. He received his commission as first lieutenant of infantry from the reserve officers' training camp (Camp Stanley) at Leon Springs, Texas. Lieutenant Jones was practicing law at Tucson, Arizona, when war was declared by the United States by Germany.

A largely attended meeting of St. Mary's Alumnae Association was held in the Assembly Hall of St. Mary's last evening. At the request of Miss Rosa Crilly, president, Mrs. E. V. Tom, a parliamentarian of Washington, presided. After the reading of the minutes, the treasurer's report and the reports of chairmen of committees in charge of activities since the last meeting, the business for which this special meeting was called, namely, revising the constitution, was taken up and completed satisfactorily. By unanimous vote the new constitution was adopted to replace the old one.

Miss Mary Whittall gave a report of the Baltimore conference of the Potomacc Division, stating that the keynote of the conference was "Co-ordination," and to prevent duplication by centering everything through the division headquarters. Miss Whittall resigned from the finance committee and Mr. L. Ruben was appointed in her place. Ten dollars was appropriated to the Potomac diviison for the wool fund.

WOMAN SHOOTS ASSAILANT.

Little Daughter Gets Pistol While Mother Struggles.

Martinsbrug, W. Va., Dec. 4.—Attacked in her home on North College street here yesterday by Felix Martie, a foreigner employed at the West Standard quarries, Mrs. Peytor. Barr, a young matron, defended herself by shooting her assailant just as neighbors, who had been attracted by the screams of the woman and her little daughter, rushed to her rescue.

Martie forced his way into the home of Mrs. Barr and refused to leave, grappling with the woman in an effort to overpower her. While Mrs. Barr was strugging to escape, her little daughter ran upstairs and secured a revolver, which she placed in her mother's hand. Mrs. Barr shot Martie in the leg, and he was held by neighbors until the police arrived. It is said that Martie had been ordred away from the Barr home Sunday and then threatened to "get" Mrs. Barr.

EAST AFRICA IS WON.

"Cleared of Enemy," Says British Report, Marking Close of Long Campaign.

London, Dec. 4.—"East Africa has been completely cleared of the enemy."

German East Africa, which has a coast line of about 620 miles and an estimated area of 58,000 square miles, was attacked by the British forces, including South African troops, under Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, from the north and by Belgian and Portuguese troops from the south and west. The campaign began early in 1915. Prior to this British East Africa had been invaded, and General Smuts, who succeeded General Sir Horace Lockwood-Smith-Dorrien, found that he had to contend with an army of about 50,000 native troops, aided by 3,000 Germans and possessing powerful artillery.

With the loss of East Africa, all of her colonies have been taken from Germany. These had an area of more than 1,000,000 square miles and a population of about 14,000,000, including 25,000 whites.

Among those who will take part in the entertainment to be given in the Westminster building on Friday evening will be Darrell Wallace Calker, boy soprano soloist of St. Alban's cathedral; Mr. Frank Gebest, pianist; Mr. Lewis Thompson, tenor, and Miss Bertie Thompson, soprano, all of Washington, and other local talent.

BURGLAR FALLS DEAD.

Stricken While Prying Postoffice Window.

After robbing the postoffice at Clifton, Va., an unidentified white man apparently about 45 years of age evidently attempted to burglarize the postoffice at Fairfax station and after prying open the window fell dead of heart failure just inside. His body aws found early yesterday morning when the postoffice was opened.

Many letters and several dollars' worth of stamps and other mail matter and a complete set of burglar's tools were found on his body but nothing that offers a clue as to his identity could be discovered.

Physicians who examined the body declared the man had died of heart disease, and had been dead many hours when discovered.

SOLDIER HANGED IN FRANCE.

Confessed Assaulting and Murdering 7-Year-Old Girl.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The execution of Private Frank Cadue, of the infantry, for assault on and murder of a 7-year-old French girl in France November 5 has been approved by the War Department.

Cadue was hanged after sentence by a military court-martial, instead of being shot, as had previously been said. The record of the trial says he confessed to the crime and pleaded that, being under the influence of liquor, he did not know what he was doing. Cadue's was the first case of its kind to occur in the American army abroad.

CAMBRAIAN SHAMBLES

Prince Rupprecht Said to Have Sacrificed Two Hundred Thousand Men During Past Few Days.

London, Dec. 4.—The battle of Cambrai, which began with a tremendous British victory on November 20 and which saw the famous Hindenburg line crumble and smash before the ghastly British tanks, has now entered its bloodiest stage, in what already appears to be the vital conflict of the present campaign.

Allied leaders, who recognize that the war will be won by killing Germans and not by any sweeping advance on the West front, hail the bloody conflict now raging near Cambrai as one of the few conflicts destined to have an important bearing on the termination of peace.

Observers at the British headquarters in the Cambrai region are emphatic in declaring the present German counter attack to be the most exhaustive movement ever started by the German high command on the West front.

Prince Rupprecht, in a desperate attempt to regain the ground lost in a single day to Byng's men, has for the last four days been hurling masses of picked German troops against the terrific British fire. Strategy has been thrown to the winds, and the old Teuton method of advancing in solid formation has again come into vogue.

The result is a German casualty list that must be beyond all comparison, even with Verdun, where the German crown prince earned the never-ending hatred of the German people, whose sons were sent to certain death against an immovable wall of fire.

From figures supplied by the correspondents who saw the Cambrai battlefield strewn with masses of German dead, it is estimated that the Teuton losses are approximately double those of their enemy. The British losses last week were a little more than 120,000, of which possibly 100,000 fell in the offensive which swept more than five miles through the Hindenburg line.

A conservative estimate, therefore of the German casualties in the last few days' fighting at Cambrai would place the number at 200,000.

The conclusion to be drawn from this, leaving aside the tremendous effect on the people of Germany, is that the allies, by standing still and defending their positions on the West front, are going forward in their work of winning the war by killing Germans.

SERENE CONDITIONS.

No Cases in the Police Court and but Two City Prisoners in Jail.

There were no cases for trial on the docket of the Police Court this morning. There have been but few during the past few weeks, and they generally are of a trivial nature. There are only two city prisoners in the Alexandria jail at present, while about a year ago the average was forty. Such conditions are hailed with delight by the entire community.

The police force since outlying territory was annexed to the city have had their beats elongated to twice their former area, yet few cases of disorder escape them.

The vigilance of the police at this season of the year is directed especially toward the prevention of robberies. So far but few have been committed.

"Fatty" Arbuckle" Tonight.

Of all his disguises, save of course, the time honored overalls and derby, "Fatty's" most becoming and funniest is a demure bathing suit which he wears in his newest Paramount comedy, "Fatty in Coney Island." His adventures in the famous beach resort are wonders and the scenes were actually filmed there during the recent Mardi Gras festival. "Fatty in Coney Island," will appear at the Richmond theatre tonight.

Shirley Mason will also be seen in a five-reel production, "In Darkness and Light."

At the Surprise William Farnum will be seen in "A Tale of Two Cities."

CHESAPEAKE BAY BASES

War and Navy Departments Plan to Spend $5,000,000 on Their Development.

Estimates of appropriations for the next fiscal year transmitted to Congress yesterday through Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, revealed plans of the War and Navy Departments to expend approximately $15,000,000 in the development of their scheme to make the Chesapeake Bay and its leading tributaries a great naval and military base. About $11,000,000 of this fund is for expenditure around Norfolk and the lower bay, and $4,000,000 around Baltimore and in the upper bay sections.

Among the expenditures of $1,160,000 for enlarging the Indian Head Proving Grounds and the erection of new buildings at the naval powder factory at Indian Head, and $176,775 for the purchase of the city quarantine station and equipment, so that the Federal Government may have complete control of the quarantine service in the Chesapeake Bay.

The War Department's plans in the lower section of the bay call for the expenditure of $3,500,000 for the enlarging of the Norfolk Navy Yard, the construction of new buildings and other work so that the largest battleships can be built there. The sum of $2,800,000 is wanted to further develop and maintain the naval base and training station which has been located on the site of the old Jamestown Exposition. Approximately $1,540,000 is asked for the dredging of a 40-foot channel from the navy yard through the Norfolk harbor to the sea. This channel will be 1,000 feet wide in some places and will be one of the deepest harbors in the United States. More than $5,000,000 is wanted for the construction of an ammunition shipping and storage warehouse system in Norfolk.

The sum of $160,000 is asked for gas buoys and other aids of navigation for the bay and Potomac river to make the increased travel of those bodies of water safer. Approximately $2,000,000 is wanted for pushing work on the Cape Henry fortress, which will protect the Chesapeake from invasion.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 4.—Five thousand union sympathizers ran through downtown streets last night smashing windows of street cars and attacking nonunion carmen who attempted to run cars.

Within thirty minutes after the first brick as thrown, the mob had made its way around the entire loop, completely paralyzing street car traffic. No further attempts were made to run the cars.

The attack on the street cars following a meeting at a downtown park during the afternoon, in which representatives of the Non-Partisan League and other speakers are alleged to have urged trade unionists to defy teh order of the public safety committee that union carmen return to ork without wearing union buttons.

Much damage was done to the street car companies' properties. The police were unable to stop the disorder. Later the Home Guards were called out and the disturbance stopped.

THE SNEERING TEUTONS.

The average German war lord is still disposed to look upon the United States with a contempt similar to that of Goliath of Gath when he gazed upon the ruddy shepherd boy of Israel who walked toward the giant Philistine armed with a sling. The papers today contain statements from German generals and others who minimize any hostile attitude the United States may take in this great world war.

Dispatches from the western front, however, show that American valor is as much in evidence now as it ever was when the people are called upon to fight for their rights. Americans are this time facing a cruel and relentless foe who imagine all things are theirs from the fact that they are of the Teutonic race.

High tribute to the gallant conduct of the American army engineers in France, who were caught in the German encircling attack on the British lines near Cambrai, is paid in an official communication from the French Government. The communication follows:

"We remark upon the conduct of certain American soldiers, pioneers and workmen on the military railroad in the sector of the German attack west of Cambrai on November 30. They exchanged their picks and shovels for rifles and cartridges and fought with the English. Many died thus bravely, arms in hands, before the invader.

"All helped to repulse the enemy. There is not a single person who saw them at work who does not render warm praise to the coolness, discipline and courage of these improvised combatants."

GERMAN RESPONSIBILITY.

We shoud not make the mistake of assuming that the German people have no responsibility for the atrocities perpetrated by their armies. It is impossible to imagine a wicked government forcing the soldiers to barbarities against their will. There is too much positive evidence of the relish of German soldiers in the execution of orders given them and the enjoyment of the license allowed them by their officers. For example, Johann Wenger, a Bavarian soldier, had in his possession when killed a letter to his betrothed in which he had written:

"I am sending you a bracelet made out of a piece of a shell. This will be a fine souvenir of a German warrior who has gone through the whole campaign and has killed heaps of Frenchmen. I have also bayoneted a good number of women. During the battle of Budonwiller I did away with four women and seven young girls in five minutes. The captain had told me to shoot these French sows, but I preferred to run my bayonet through them."

As the New Bedford Standard says, he is an offset to the letter of the soldier who protested to Ambassador Gerard against the butcheries in which he was forced to participate. There is plenty more evidence of a similar character to show that it is impossible to acquit the German soldiers on the charge of inhuman practices and fasten all the guilt upon an abstraction like the government or on the commanding officers.

MURDEROUS SPEED MANIACS.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger says the killing of a young man and his wife in West Philadelphia on Saturday evening by the driver of an automobile running at high speed and without lights at a crossing was deliberate murder, for the commission of which the author should be held to the strictest account. Every reckless driver within the built-up limits of the city is a potential murderer, and until a few of the tribe shall be dealt with as they deserve the streets will continue to be unsafe, and the lives of innocent pedestrians put in hourly peril. The vast majority of automobile users, it is but just to say, are obedient to the laws and exercise reasonable care in the handling of their cars; but the minority who obey no rules in the absence of a traffic policeman, who "take chances" with death at every crossing and who are recklessly indifferent to the lives and safety of all others are a menace to the community, for whom no punishment will be too severe.

A sober-sided conservative and representative Alexandrian said a few days ago while commenting upon a fatal accident in which several reckless autoists had been killed, that their departure from this world was a blessing, and so long as they lived they would be menaces to the communities.

The new traffic law introduced in the City Council several months ago is asleep in the hands of the committee to which it was recommitted after the Board of Aldermen refused to concur in the action of the Common Council, which board had adopted it. The present ordinance, however, is comparatively drastic, and should persons who defy law and take desperate risks in operating automobiles be arrested and the full penalty of the law exacted such action would meet with the hearty approbation of the community.

Comparatively few Alexandrians are inclined to tempt providence or ignore law, but some who visit this city from nearby places seem to imagine Alexandria has no rights they are bound to respect. It is no uncommon occurrence for them to put on speed where hailed by a policeman and rush by them laughing. It has been suggested that should the city procure one or two autocycles for the use of officers the machines would pay for themselves in the way of fines in a short time.

WHAT THE ISSUE MEANS.

(Contributed editorial in Richmond Virginian by Granville Fortescue.)

Germany victorious means the world enslaved. It means that the Prussian conqueror would impose his will upon the nations of the earth as in other ages the Roman conqueror imposed the yoke of his profligate rulers upon the peopies of the past. And as Rome exploited the then known world for Roman gain, so Germany would today exploit the world for German gain.

Should our nation dispute the will of the German leaders, German armies would overrun them as today Belgium, Serbia, Roumania, Poland and part of France are overrun and devasted.

Americans take up the burden of battle to check such attainment; Americans take up the burden of battle to make the world free. Unless the United States and the allies defeat Germany, the United States, as the world's greatest democracy and the nation which idealizes peace, will be brought into constant conflict of interest with Germany, the world's greatest autocracy and the nation which idealizes war.

This is not a war of our seeking. Never have a people gone to battle with hearts so clean. Providence imposes a terrible yet a sacred task upon us.

This task will take heavy toll of our manhood and wealth. Yet it will console our people to reflect that every life lost, every dollar spent, is in a holy cause. Americans fight for the faith of their fathers, and that faith is compassed in the one word, Freedom.

HOUSE'S WORK ENDED.

American War Mission Plans to Return and Report.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The members of the American war mission began winding up their affairs this week preparatory to leaving for America. They were busy compiling reports and clearing up minor details in conference with their French and British associates.

It is officially announced that no plenary meeting of the conference will be held, and that the Americans will take no further part in the meetings of the supreme war council until the mission has returned home and made its report. Col. House and Gen. Bliss represented the United States at the meeting of the war council Sunday, but the permanent representation is still undetermined. Col. House has been in frequent communication with President Wilson, who has been advised on all important developments.

The interallied council, which is a permanent body dealing with finance, shipping, munitions and other economic and industrial aspects of the war, will open its meetings in London within a fortnight. O. T. Crosby is the representative of the United States at this conference.

Gen. Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary forces, and Viscount Northcliffe had a conference here this morning.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Miss B. A. Hooper, of Richmond, was seriously injured Sunday morning when she was thrown from an automobile in Petersburg.

Judge James F. Crocker, one of the oldest citizens of Portsmouth, died Saturday afternoon after a protracted illness. He was eighty-nine years old. He was an officer in the Confederate army during the civil war.

Rowland Wright, who lived near Milford, Caroline county, killed himself on Saturday by shooting the top of his head off with a shotgun. He had been in bad health for some time, and his mind was affected.

Rev. George T. Waite, of Herndon, Fairfax county, to whom a call to the pastorate of the church had been extended several months ago, following a series of meetings which he had conducted at Barton Heights, has declined to accept the call to become pastor of the Baptist church of Barton Heights, Richmond.

Robert Beazley, who was assaulted in Caroline county about six weeks ago, by an unknown person, died Sunday from the effects of his injuries. The authorities were unable to obtain the name of the assailant as Beazley refused to talk of the affair. He never left his bed after the attack.

Becoming suspicious yesterday afternoon after having made several attempts to open the door of her room, the clerk of the Central hotel on Bollingbrook St., Petersburg, broke down the door and found Mrs. Fore, aged about twenty-eight years, the wife of Johnny Fore, of Camp Lee, had committed suicide by turning on the gas heater in the room.

W. B. Throckmorton, shot on Saturday by Richard Haynes, who was also wounded by Throckmorton, died in the Danville hospital early yesterday. Throckmorton made a dying declaration, in which he stated that Haynes fired the first shot as he was passing in front of a garage. Haynes, in jail, last night denied that he fired the first shot.

For some time a large seven-passenger car, operated by a negro, with one negro companion, has been going through Fredericksburg north at intervals, returning in about two days. Sunday night Sergt. Chichester, Chief of Police Perry and Officer Stone arrested the two men. Examination of the car revealed the presence of about 60 gallons of whisky. The men were locked up. They gave their names as J. P. Alexander and George Courtenay, and said they are from Richmond.

Maryland and Virginia soldiers at Camp McClellan led the Blue and Gray Division in the review before Governor Henry C. Stuart, of Virginia, yesterday morning. General Charles D. Gaither commanded the division of nearly 25,000 men for the perpose of getting it massed on the field and leading it past the reviewing stand. Col. Charles A. Little commanded the Fifty-eighth Brigade. Nearly every band in the column played "Dixie," or "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny."

Lieutenant William Richardson, of the United States Navy, relates a most interesting condition in his latest communication to his father in Bristol from European waters. Lieutenant Richardson writes his father that, while he is not in a position to communicate important details, he was, however, deeply impressed with the change in conditions since the Americans entered the war zone in a united effort with the British and French to combat with enemy U-boats. Where he states originally the crew of his ship was able to sight from fifty to sixty enemy U-boats within a given time, the number for the same length of time had now been reduced to from three to five visibile enemy underocean craft. This information seems to confirm the claims of Lord George and others in authority in Britain that enemy U-boats are being accounted for quite effectively.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Five

Jimmie and a German Boy Clash—Must Do Three Things to Save Country.

It was a warm evening, so Uncle Dan went out to a lawn seat under the spreading branches of the great tree that suggested the farm's name of Oak Hill. Billie and Jimmie had been laying for him, so Uncle Dan was captured by the boys on short order.

"Say, Uncle Dan," Billie began. "We had a red-hot argument at school yesterday with Carl Newman. Carl said that German schools were miles ahead of our schools and that no one could come up to the educated German. Well, Jimmie got hot under the collar and handed it back to him good and plenty. Jimmie said if their education taught them to torpedo Lusitanias, sink hospital ships, murder hundreds of women and children, make slaves of the Belgians, poison wells, destroy fruit trees and commit all sorts of crimes, then we did not want that kind of education here. What do you think about it, Uncle Dan? I told Jimmie you spent a lot of time in Europe and knew all about schools, so give us your opinion."

"Well," replied Uncle Dan, deliberately, "the German schools are very thorough; they furnish exceedingly valuable and practical instruction. The industrial training given there is probably the best to be found. The schools as a whole, however, in my opinion, appeal to the head only, and never to the heart. The aim and trend is to make the individual blindly submissive to the Prussian plan of world dominion; they teach that it is the destiny of Germany to rule the world, and that to the glory and advance of Germany, in this plan, all things must give way; that the kaiser as head of the state, can do no wrong if he carries forward the plan of world control. Some of the greatest teachers and preachers even defend and justify her heartless crushing of Belgians and the many other atrocious crimes she has committed in this war. Thank God, our American education reaches both the head and the heart. It is an education with a soul, and we must maintain the high ideals we have fixed. In a word, in Germany, the people are taught that they exist for the government, while here the government exists to serve the people."

"Just wait a minute," interrupted Billie. "Say that over again slowly, so I can write it down."

Uncle Dan, smilingly, complied.

Billie exclaimed: "Now, we will hand that nut out for Carl to crack. Carl, you know," continued Billie, "has a very smart father who keeps him posted on the German arguments. Carl said our government was only an experiment anyway; that it would not last twenty years, and that it might burst up any old time. Jimmie asked him if Germany was so mighty good, why they did not go back there to live."

"Our government will go on forever, won't it, Uncle Dan?"

"Now," said Uncle Dan, "you are raising a big question, and one that has troubled me for years. Our government is still in the experimental stage; in fact, it is the greatest experiment ever undertaken, and if popular government is to be successful, a few things must be done, otherwise, to paraphrase the great Lincoln, the government of the people, by the people and for the people, will perish. It is my firm conviction," said Uncle Dan in a very impressive manner, "that if our country is to go on, as we hope and pray, we must very quickly do at least three things, and I will name them in the order of importance as it appears to me:

"First, adopt compulsory universal military training of all young men physically fit before they reach the age of twenty years.

"Next, require that every foreigner who comes here to live must, within a reasonable time, say a year, declare his intention of becoming an American citizen and take the necessary steps to do so, thereby, from that moment, assuming all the obligations of citizenship of our country, and that means he must defend our flag upon equal terms with our native born, and if he is not willing to do this, he should be sent back from whence he came."

"That's the stuff," exclaimed Billie.

"And, finally, enact such legislation as will make voting compulsory. Popular government is based upon the participation of all and the rule of the majority, and democracy cannot continue and be successful unless we live up to the spirit of the institution.

"The first step, however, is the passing of the Chamberlain bill for universal military training. If you will get the leading citizen, and especially the editor of your paper, to write personal letters to your congressman and both senators, urging their support, it will help enormously.

"I see by the morning papers," said Uncle Dan, "that the Rotary clubs of the entire country, the livest, most efficient organization to be found, have unanimously decided to get back of the Chamberlain bill and give it loyal and enthusiastic support. They will work with the Universal Military Training league to accomplish this important piece of legislation which will do more than anything else to make us a real nation with a common viewpoint, bring us back to sane living, and teach us the patriotism of service."

CAPTURES U-BOAT.

Taken by Americans After Mutiny Aboard Submersible.

Newport, Dec. 4.—The capture of one of Germany's finest submarines by an American warship was reported in a story which reached here from a French seaport. According to the account reaching here the submersible was first taken in charge by its mutinous crew, its officers were overpowered, slain and their bodies lashed to the deck, and a white flag was hoisted.

The submarine, which carried many torpedoes and two 6-inch guns, remained away from her base considerably longer than the two months which was to be the length of her cruise. Her supplies running short her crew rose in mutiny and took possession.

She was first sighted by a British war vessel, but, fearing a ruse, the Briton did not approach, despite the flag of truce. An American warship heaving in sight, ran up beside the undersea vessel and was hailed by her crew. She took them aboard as prisoners and towed the captured submarine to French waters.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side; could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side...

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Definite proof, it is asserted, of the existence of a German U-boat station off the South American coast was obtained by the Argentine authorities last night in evidence taken from crews of interned German steamships at Buenos Aires.

Uprisings are in progress in the Yang-tse-kiang provinces, in China, including two independence movements. Rebels in Hu-nan province are threatening to march on Hankow. Gen. Wang Shichen has been named acting premier.

Seth Shepard, chief justice of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, retired, died last night in Garfield Hospital, Washington, following an operation, last week, from which he never rallied. He was 70 years old.

Confirmation that the Austro-German drive in Italy has been halted abruptly by the reorganized, re-enforced Italian army is contained in an official dispatch from Rome, announcing the enemy attacks on the Italian front have entirely ceased and calm prevails.

"I will not vote for another draft," said Senator Hardwick, of Georgia, yesterday. The Senator was a bitter opponent of the selective draft law at the last session. "I have no further plans for opposing the present law" he continued. "I tried at the last session to have it amended so that American soldiers could not be sent abroad. I am sorry, but I failed in this. The majority decided in favor of the draft and of course we cannot do away with our army. But I will not vote for a further draft. I am conscientiously opposed to such a system.

Thousands of government employes will read with keen disappointment the annual budget of estimates, totalling $13,500,000,000 for the conduct of the government and the prosecution of the war during the fiscal year 1919, for they will take approximately $25,000,000 from the pay envelopes of the Federal workers. That aggregate increase was provided by the 5 and 10 per cent graded increase granted the great majority of employes below the $1,800 grade. These increases started July 1, 1917, but will automatically cease July 1, 1918 if Congress adopts the estimate presented.

Representative John J. Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, New York, announced last night that he would resign his seat on December 31. As chairman of the committee on appropriations of the House, Representative Fitzgerald had charge of all the immense appropriations for carrying on the war, and has been, in that capacity, one of the Democratic control, for several years. That President Wilson will personally endeavor to have him reconsider his intention of leaving Washington, as a patriotic duty, was freely predicted by House and Senate leaders last night.

The band of thirty-five Mexican bandits which raided Tigner's ranch Friday was annihilated Saturday by American troops, who followed the bandits across the Rio Grande into Mexico. The American troops were commanded by Lieut. Leonard F. Matlock.

Four large buildings at the Morse Drydock and Repair Company, on the South Brooklyn water front, were destroyed by fire last night with an estimated loss of $1,000,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. United States soldiers on duty at the plant declared that the fire started suddenly in the carpenter shop, where hundreds of men were working and then quickly spread to other buildings.

Terribly beaten in a struggle with thieves, apparently, James Reilly, managing editor of a Wall street publication, was found lying unconscious in his home in Ridgewood, N. J., yesterday. He had dropped to the floor after removing the telephone received from its hook in an attempt to call for help. According to the telephone employes, the receiver was removed Thanksgiving day. It is believed the editor had been lying in the cold four days with his wounds unattended. He was removed in a dying condition to a nearby hospital.

Thirteen convicts ,six of them convicted murderers, who overpowered two guards and escaped from the Joliet, Ill., penitentiary yesterday, were at large last night. A state of mind near a panic existed among the residents both of the city and of the countryside, and the streets were deserted at an early hour and doors and windows of all homes locked and barred. A posse of 60 penitentiary guards, police and deputy sheriffs, aided by as many more armed farmers, were in search of the fugitives.

A Christmas armistice is urged in a message sent to all belligerent countries by the Swedish peace society.

A street car on the Chickamauga park line was dynamited near East Lake, Tenn., Sunday night, but the crew and passengers escaped serious injury. Motorman L. N. Sargent was badly shocked and was hurried to a hospital. The front of the car was wrecked and a large hole blown in the ground. Officers making an investigation believe the wreck was the work of strike sympathizers, the union carmen having been out for several weeks.

Four persons, two men, a woman and a 3-year-old girl, were killed at a railroad crossing near Bordentown, N. J., when an express train struck their automobile.

Alleging assault and false imprisonment, suffrage pickets, recently released by court order from Occoquan workhouse and the District of Columbia jail, filed suits yesterday asking an aggregate of $400,000 damages from the District of Columbia Commissioners, Supt. Whittaker, of Occoquan, and Warden Zinkham, of the District jail.

Two men, a woman and a little girl were killed Sunday when a passenger train of the Pennsylvania Railroad struck the automobile in which they were riding near Bordenton, N. J. The machine had stalled on the tracks.

Violence is marking the strike in the Peruvian petroleum fields. In a skirmish between strikers and soldiers Saturday twenty-six casualties occurred.

In a message received in Washington Sunday from the American expeditionary forces, Gen. Pershing is quoted as declaring: "Germany can, must and will be beaten."

No man will be granted exemption from the draft because he has dependents. In a review of the situation as affecting registered men, Provost Marshal General Crowder made that plain yesterday.

According to figures given out by the British war office last night the British captured on all fronts in the month of November 26,869 prisoners and 221 guns. Among the captures were 11,551 men and 138 guns taken on the western front, 10,454 men and 30 guns in Palestine and 4,403 men and 8 guns in East Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Miller and their seven children are believed to have been burned to death early yesterday in a fire which destroyed the two-story frame house in which they lived on a farm near Butler, N. J. None of the members of the family have been seen since the fire started, and all of them are believed to have been asleep on the second floor of the building.

CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH.

Locked in House While Mother Went to Neighbor's For Water.

Easton, Md., Dec. 4.—Two children, aged 1 and 3 years, were burned to death yesterday when the tenant house on the farm of Leonard F. Gilder, near Trappe, was destroyed by fire. The mother of the children locked them in the house and went over to a neighbors, some distance away after a bucket of water. While she was gone the house caught fire. Charles Willis, a neighbor, saw the flames and with his farm hands ran across the field to the burning building, but they were unable to get into the building and save the children.
